

---

Index

1. Review

-
- ~ The Purchasing function: it assumes the leadership roles in the relationship with suppliers, whether one-off or recurring, without prejudice to the establishment of principles of delegation of this responsibility in the development of the Policy, depending on the amounts or nature of the procurement. In addition, as part of the segregation of duties, it is necessary to comply at all times with the power structure established by the Board of Directors.
  - ~ Transparency: the information used during the procurement, selection and evaluation of suppliers processes must be distributed homogeneously among the legitimately interested parties, without prejudice to due respect for the confidentiality of the same.
  - ~ Objectivity, impartiality and equal opportunities: decisions in purchasing processes, including the evaluation of suppliers, will be taken in a , d 4(ti36(i)54( )33( )-26(d) )-1atdd eual im 39/21(s31-BD01r w)4(h)-4(e)4(th)-6(e)4(r )-26(o)

8. Supplementary documents

This Purchasing, Procurement of Services and Investment Policy and its further implementation should