

Ms. TERESA QUIRÓS ÁLVAREZ

Bachelor of Economics from Economic Faculty of Málaga (1976-1981), Directors Program of IESE (April-July 2021), Executive Program for Women in Senior Managers (October 2014-June 2015), Executive Program in Harvard (May 2013), PDD in IESE (January-May 2010), Program W2W (PWC) for helping women senior managers to become directors (October 2017—June 2018); she has been linked to the electricity sector, performing various functions in RED ELÉCTRICA CORPORACIÓN, where she has been CFO for the last 7 years, and member of the Boards and Committees of various subsidiaries, performing in this position functions related to risk management, administration and accounting, strategy and management control.

Furthermore, she has also been Director and Chairman of REE Finance BV, Independent Director and member of the Audit Committee of Grenergy Renovables and Independent Director and Chairman of the Audit Committee of Singular People, S.A.

She is currently an Independent Director and member of the Audit Committee of Acciona Energías Renovables, S.A (Acciona Energía) and Independent Director, Chairman of the Audit Committee and member of the Sustainability Committee of Promotora de Informaciones, S.A. (PRISA).